... Employer/Party II

Party I/Workman represented by Shri Subhas Naik Jorge.

Party II/Employer represented by Adv. P. Chawdikar.

Panaji dated: 15-02-2011

AWARD

1. In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947) the Government of Goa, by order dated 18-09-2009, bearing No. 28/21/2009-LAB/943, referred the following dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal of Goa.

- (1) "Whether the action of the management of M/s. International Centre, Goa, Goa University Road, Dona Paula, Goa in terminating the services of Ms. Sandra D'Souza, Reservation Incharge, w.e.f. 28-01-2009, is legal and justified?
- (2) If not, what relief the workman is entitled to?"

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. LC-II/IT/10/09 and registered A/D notice was issued to the parties. In pursuance to the said notice, the parties put in their appearance. The Party I/Workman (for short 'Workman'), filed her statement of claim on 18-12-2009 at Exhibit-5. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the Workman are that the Employer/Party II (for short "Employer") is an "industry" as defined under Industrial Dispute Act, 1947. She stated that the Employer is engaged in hiring international standard facilities for seminars, workshops, residential and non-residential conferences as well as providing hotel rooms and restaurant facilities for its members and non-members customers and is run by a trust. She stated that the Employer charges money for the facilities provided by it. She stated that she was employed as a "Secretary/Reservation Secretary" by the Employer vide appointment letter dated 16th October, 2003 and was thereafter issued confirmation letter as "Assistant Executive-Reservations" vide their letter dated 15th April, 2004. She stated that she was promoted to the post of Reservation Incharge by the Employer based on her good performance. She stated that her main duties were to do reservations and such other duties as assigned to her by her superiors. She stated that no employees were working under her. She stated that her services have been terminated by the President of the Employer by letter dated 28-01-2009 with immediate effect without assigning any reasons. She submitted that Mr. Pratapsingh Rane, President of the Employer had no authority to terminate her services. She stated that being aggrieved by the decision of the Employer, she raised an industrial dispute vide her letter dated 29-01-2009 and letter dated 05-02-2009 demanding re-instatement in service with full back wages and continuity in services. She stated that the said industrial dispute ended in failure as no amicable solution had come through. She contended that she was issued an appointment letter as well as promotion letter by Mr. Jayant Chhaya, the Director of the Employer and he alone had power to appoint, promote and terminate her services on behalf of the Employer. She stated that while in the employment of the Employer, she was harassed and as such she had lodged a Police complaint vide her letter dated 13-01-2009. She stated that soon after filing of the said complaint to the Police Inspector, Panaji Police Station, Panaji-Goa, her services came to be terminated vide letter dated 28-01-2009. She contended that the Termination Order dated 28-01-2009 issued to her is in violation of the principles of natural justice as well as in violation of Standing Orders of the Employer. She contended that termination order dated 28-01-2009 issued to her is also in violation of the mandatory provision of the Section 25-F, 25-G and 25-H of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. She therefore contended that termination of her services w.e.f. 28-01-2009 is illegal, unjust and mala fide. She stated that since, after the termination of her services w.e.f. 28-01-2009, she is unemployed and is surviving on the savings made during her service tenure. She therefore, prayed that she be reinstated in services with full back wages and in continuity of services with costs.

3. The Employer controverted the claim of the Workman/Party I, by filing their written statement on 02-02-2010 at Exhibit-7. The Employer by way of preliminary objection submitted that the dispute raised by the Workman is not an "Industrial Dispute" as defined under the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947 and it is not an "Industry" as defined under Industrial Dispute Act, 1947. The Employer stated that it is a Society and a charitable organization registered under the Societies Registration Act of 1860, registered in the State of Goa under No. 38/GOA/87. The Employer however, admitted that they have terminated the services of the Workman vide their letter dated 28-01-2009 for the loss of confidence and after reviewing view her performance. The Employer stated that the Workman was working as a "Reservation Incharge" and they observed her un-co-operative attitude and arrogant behavior while in their employment. The Employer stated that on 09-01-2009, its General Manager had arranged a meeting to discuss the whole issue of low occupancy and probable steps for improving the occupancy level. The Employer stated that the said meeting was attended by Ms. Hasina, Senior Executive Reservation (Marketing), Program Manager, Accounts Manager and Assistant General Manager. The Employer stated that in the said meeting all the officials present had agreed that in order to ensure best possible service to their members/guests and also to draw more business, there should be more interaction and co-ordination between Reservation and Marketing Section. The Employer stated that they also decided that they should work more closely and should occupy the same office for direct communication instead of sitting apart w.e.f. 12-01-2009. The Employer stated that on 10-01-2009 the Workman expressed her unwillingness to share the same office with Ms. Hasina and informed that she would not sit in the office of Marketing was shifted back in the same office. The Employer stated that the Workman had admitted that there were lot of differences between herself and Ms. Hasina and they cannot work together. The Employer stated that their General Manager tried to motivate her by saying that they should rise above narrow considerations and start afresh keeping in mind organizational interest. The Employer stated that the General Manager had arranged another meeting on Saturday 10-01-2009 at 11.00 a.m. to discuss about the formulation of policies and procedures for booking of Management facilities. The Employer stated that the said meeting was not attended by the Workman deliberately despite being informed her in advance, but left the office early at 12.21 p.m. i.e. almost one hour before office timing without any permission. On 12-01-09, as per the discussions, Ms. Haseena was shifted in Reservation Office. The Employer stated that the Workman punched her card at 11.45 a.m. and opted to shift in the Library instead of Reservation Office. The Employer stated that the Workman thereafter submitted two letters to the General Manager, one for proceeding on leave and another claiming harassment at work-place and also stated that under any circumstances she would not sit in the office with Ms. Hasina. The Employer stated that their General Manager repeatedly tried to persuade the Workman about her attitude and her illogical stand, but she refused to accept any advice from him and stated that he should give her in writing that if she continues in the same office there will be no threats to her life. The Employer stated that the Workman also told that she do not want to reverse her decision even if she is terminated from her services. The Employer stated that she was even offered to look after F & B services independently as a last resort to settle the issue by sitting independently, however she bluntly refused the said proposal given to her and stated that she would go to the higher authorities to resolve the dispute. The Employer stated that she had informed that her leave period is for 30 days on asking her to specify the leave period by the Asst. General Manager vide his letter dated 14-01-2009. The Employer stated that on 15-01-2009 at around 10.30 a.m. they received a call from one Mr. Sunil, PSI, Panaji Police Station asking them to report at the Police Station on account of the complaint filed by the Workman against Mr. Ayub and Ms. Hasina alleging the harassment at the work-place and engaging goons to threaten her. The Employer stated that their General Manager told Panaji Police that the allegation pertaining to the harassment at work-place has already been subjected to administrative scrutiny and there was hardly any documentary evidence in the office record in this regard. However, the complaint as regards threats to the Workman by engaging goons by Mr. Ayub and Ms. Hasina, their General Manager expressed his ignorance over the said issue. The Employer stated that the Police Inspector had asked their General Manager to get the said issue resolved at their office level only. The Employer stated that they had issued a Memo dated 18-01-2009 to the Workman directing her to substantiate the allegations levelled against Mr. Ayub and

Ms. Hasina vide her letter dated 11-01-2009 addressed to the General Manager. The Employer stated that the Workman filed her reply to the said Memo, which was found to be unsatisfactory. The Employer stated that on 19-01-2009 the Workman met their General Manager and expressed her desire to join duty by canceling month long leave which she was directed to put in writing her request and accordingly she did. The Employer stated that the entire incident as stated above has hurt their working scenario. The Employer stated that the reply filed by the Workman also falls short of substantiating the allegations levelled by her against her own colleagues. The Employer stated that the attitude of the Workman was also found to be uncompromising that has an adverse impact on the overall staff morale. The Employer stated that in the past, the Workman was found to be rude and obstinate and therefore, they have decided to terminate the services of the Workman for indulging in gross indiscipline and loss of confidence and terminated the services of the Workman w.e.f. 28-01-2009. The Employer submitted that the termination of services of the Workman is legal and justified and there is no case made out by the Workman for her re-instatement or for her back wages. The Employer submitted that the claim for compensation for alleged harassment or inconvenience or for loss of basic wages has no base at all. The Employer denied the overall case of the Workman and prayed for dismissal of the present reference.

4. Thereafter, the Workman filed her rejoinder on 15-02-2010 at Exhibit-8. The Workman by way of her rejoinder reiterates the contents and submissions made by her in her claim statement as true and denies all contentions and submissions made by the Employer in their written statement which are inconsistent and contrary to her claim statement. The Workman reiterates that the present dispute is an industrial dispute and the Employer is an "Industry" as defined under the Industrial Disputes Act. The Workman submitted that whenever any allegations of misconduct are referred against the Workman, the concerned Workman ought to have given a Memo and/or charge-sheet asking her to explain and if the explanation is not found to be satisfactory, an enquiry has to be conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice.

5. Thereafter, based on the pleadings filed by the respective parties, this court framed the following issues on 02-03-2010 at Exhibit-9.

1. Whether the Workman/Party I proves that she is a "Workman" as defined u/s 2(s) of the I.D. Act, 1947?
2. Whether the Workman/Party I proves that the action of Employer/Party II in terminating her services w.e.f. 28-01-2009 is illegal & unjustified?
3. Whether the Employer/Party II proves that the Party II is not an "Industry" as defined u/s 2(J) of the I. D. Act, 1947?
4. Whether the Employer/Party II proves that the Dispute between Party I & Party II is not an Industrial Dispute as defined under I. D. Act, 1947?
5. Whether the Employer/Party II proves that the services of the Workman/Party I has been terminated on account of loss of confidence in her?
6. Whether the Workman/Party I proves that she is entitled for any relief?
7. What Order? What Award?

8. Thereafter the case was fixed for the evidence of the Workman. The Workman also examined herself. She was also cross-examined by Ld. Adv. P. Chawdikar for the Employer Partly and thereafter the further cross-examination of the Workman was deferred at the request of the Ld. Adv. P. Chawdikar till the next date of hearing. However, on 08-07-2010 the Ld. Rep. Shri Subhash Naik as well as Ld. Adv. P. Chawdikar appeared on behalf of their respective parties and orally submitted that they are trying to settle the matter amicably between the parties. Accordingly, they have settled the matter amicably and filed a joint application duly signed by both the parties for No Dispute Award in terms of settlement on 01-02-2011 at Exhibit-13. The terms of settlement agreed between the parties as stated in their application dated 01-02-2011 are reproduced hereunder:

1. It is agreed between the parties to settle the dispute amicably for lumpsum payment of Rs. 80,000/- (Rupees Eighty thousand only) to Ms. Sandra D'Souza in full and final settlement of all her legal dues.
2. The Party No. 1, Ms. Sandra D'Souza stated that she is having no claim of whatsoever nature against the Party No. II/Employer including the claim of reinstatement.
3. The Party No. II, accordingly deposits the cheque before this Hon'ble Court in favour of Ms. Sandra D'Souza drawn on State Bank of India, Dona Paula, Goa Branch, bearing No. 121487 dated 27-01-2011 amounting to Rs. 80,000/- (Rupees Eighty thousand only).

4. The Party No. 1, Ms. Sandra D'Souza agreed to acknowledge receipt from Party No. II of the said amounts towards full and final settlement of all her claims against the Party No. II.

I have carefully perused the said application for No Dispute Award in terms of settlement duly signed by both the parties. In my opinion, the terms of settlement mentioned in the said application are beneficial to both the Parties. Hence, I consented for the same.
